natalie barnes buys the gray whale inn a bed and breakfast in maine and publicly opposes bernard katz's proposed resort development which threatens a colony of black chinned terns and when katz is found dead natalie must find the true killer in order to clear her own name in maggie barlow's world reality is overrated so what if her singing career has hit a sour note or she's no longer the ingénue that she used to be so what if she drinks and smokes a bit too much or likes to chat with a fairy godperson who appears to her from time to time she's the queen of denial and an actress to boot she can just take on the role of someone she likes better than her sorry self regrettably that role is currently dorothy in the little britches theater company's production of the wizard of oz dorothy on the rocks is the story of a funny lovable totally self destructive woman who after a night of one drink too many wakes up with a strange man in her bed confident handsome sexy twenty eight year old jack what happens next is what makes barbara suter's coming of middle age tale so much fun for when the make believe is finally stripped away our hurt lonely and very afraid heroine finally takes center stage and finds herself starring in a totally improbable love story it just might be the role of a lifetime countless emigrants who've hit the shores of new york have long since americanized their names and bought into their new culture that's just what half breed djinn rabriel does when he suddenly finds himself in manhattan he changes his name to john denny and sets up shop selling wishes to those who can afford them only when the gods come calling does he learn that he's violated some core rules of the universe now he's face with becoming indentured to one of them and who it will be depends on how he performs on a test they've created just for him
